

Earliest knowledge of Tanánma,
the first peoples
of North America

Time Immemorial

Earliest knowledge of Tanánma,
the first peoples
of North America

nčí iwánaša
yáwaynat
(there was a big flood)

Missoula Floods

13,000-15,000 years ago

nčí iwánaša
yáwaynat
(there was a big flood)

Missoula Floods

The eruption and collapse of Mount Mazama
forms Crater Lake

7,700 years ago

The eruption and collapse of Mount Mazama
forms Crater Lake

Arrival of kúsi (horses)
to these lands

around* 1690-1730

Arrival of kúsi (horses)
to these lands

Lewis & Clark Expedition

travels through the area

Their journals describe interactions with a Walúlapam (Walla Walla) leader known to them as “Yellept”

1805-1806

Lewis & Clark Expedition

travels through the area

Their journals describe interactions with a Walúlapam (Walla Walla) leader known to them as “Yellept”

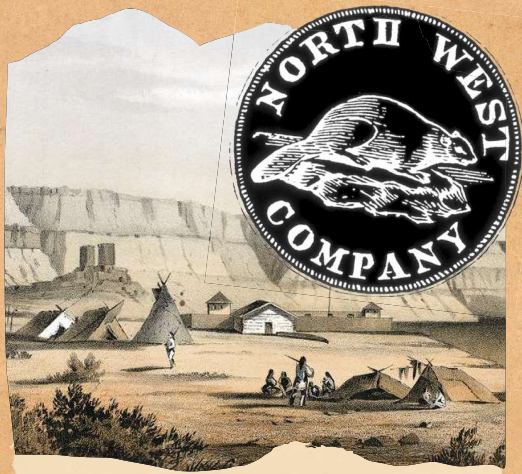

The British Empire & the U.S. sign a treaty agreeing to joint occupation of “Oregon Country”

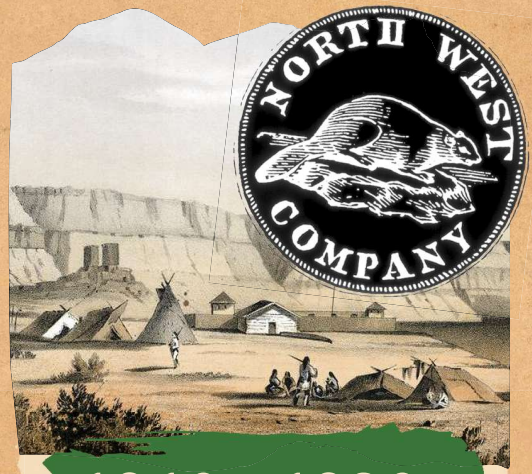

October 20, 1818

The British Empire & the U.S. sign a treaty agreeing to joint occupation of “Oregon Country”

Fur traders profit from Indigenous knowledge & travel routes throughout the Northwest

1810s-1830s

Fur traders profit
from Indigenous knowledge &
travel routes
throughout the Northwest

Missionaries
Marcus & Narcissa
Whitman establish a mission at Weyíiletpe
(now called Walla Walla)

1836

Missionaries
Marcus & Narcissa
Whitman establish a mission at Weyíiletpe
(now called Walla Walla)

Westward migration of immigrants
into & through Tribal homelands

1840s-1860s

Westward migration of immigrants
into & through Tribal homelands

Tragedy at Weyíletpe
Hundreds of Weyíletpuuma
(Cayuse people) die
from measles carried
by immigrants
The Whitmans and 11
other settlers are killed

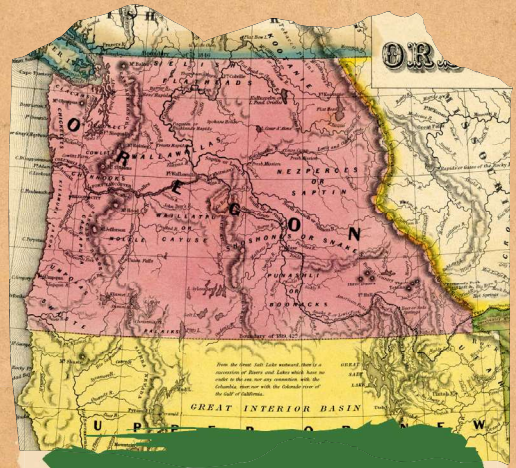

1847

Tragedy at Weyíletpe
Hundreds of Weyíletpuuma
(Cayuse people) die
from measles carried
by immigrants
The Whitmans and 11
other settlers are killed

The United States government establishes the Oregon Territory

August 14, 1848

The United States
government
establishes the Oregon Territory

The Utilla Indian Agency is built by the territorial government
at Tkúpa (tule place)

1851-1855

Utilla Indian Agency built by the territorial government at Tkúpa (tule place)

The Oregon Territory is split in two

The northern half becomes the Washington Territory

March 2, 1853

The Oregon Territory is split in two

The northern half becomes the Washington Territory

patk^wápaničašana
páwanaqit

(they were signing the treaty)

Walla Walla
Treaty Council

May & June 1855

patk^wápaničašana
páwanaqit

(they were signing the treaty)

Walla Walla
Treaty Council

Plateau War a.k.a Yakima War

The Oregon Territorial government launches
an attack against several tribes of the Columbia Plateau

1855-1858

Plateau War
a.k.a Yakima War
The Oregon Territorial
government launches
an attack against several tribes of the Columbia Plateau

Fort Henrietta
built and occupied by the Oregon
Mounted Volunteers
(not the U.S. Army)
at Tkúpa (tule place)

1855-1856

Fort Henrietta
built and occupied by the Oregon
Mounted Volunteers
(not the U.S. Army)
at Tkúpa (tule place)

The Treaty of 1855 is ratified
&
Oregon becomes a state

1859

The Treaty of 1855 is ratified
&
Oregon becomes a state

White settlers begin living permanently
at Tkúpa (tule place)

1860s

White settlers
begin living
permanently
at Tkúpa (tule place)

Entrepreneurs
J. H. Koontz &
W. D. Brassfield
plat the city of Echo, named after Koontz's daughter

July 1880

Entrepreneurs
J. H. Koontz &
W. D. Brassfield
plat the city of Echo, named after Koontz's daughter

Echo, Pendleton
& the Umatilla
Indian Reservation
are connected to global transportation networks by rail

1883

Echo, Pendleton
& the Umatilla
Indian Reservation
are connected to global transportation
networks by rail

Echo is incorporated,
creating a city
government and opportunities for municipal services like water and electricity

1904

Echo is incorporated,
creating a city
government and
opportunities for municipal services like water and electricity

CTUIR establishes its constitution and is federally recognized as a Sovereign
Tribal Nation

December 7, 1949

CTUIR establishes
its constitution and
is federally recognized as a Sovereign
Tribal Nation

The first official Pendleton
Round-Up
is attended by 7,000 people

September 1910

The first official Pendleton
Round-Up
is attended by 7,000 people

Archaeological investigations
at Tkúpa (tule place)

1984-1992

Archaeological investigations
at Tkúpa
(tule place)

Image Sources:

"Ísqúlktpé Creek, Blue Mountains" Photograph by Gary Halvorson, Oregon State Archives. Courtesy of Northwest Digital Heritage: 20100812-2560. Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International.

Map of the Missoula Floods. Artwork by Alex Gross. Creative Consultant for Geology, Dr. Alan Busacca. Published by Pacific Rim Winemakers.

Artistic rendering of the eruption of Mt. Mazama painted by Paul Rockwood. Courtesy of the National Park Service, original in the Crater Lake National Park Museum & Archives Collections.

Artistic rendering of Lewis & Clark meeting Yellepit at Walula painted by Norman Adams, 2000. Courtesy of the Fort Walla Walla Museum.

Map of Oregon Country/Columbia District and the border dispute between the U.S. & Britain, 1818-1846. Published on Wikimedia Commons in 2008 under a Creative Commons Attribution-Share Alike 2.5 Generic license.

Engraving of a Nez Perce camp outside Old Fort Walla Walla on the Columbia River, Washington. Created by J. M. Stanley in 1853. Courtesy of the University of Washington Special Collections: NA4169.

Pen and ink illustration of North West Company beaver token. Published in Castrologia; or The History and Traditions of the Canadian Beaver by Horace T. Martin 1892, p.112.

Whitman Mission at Waililatpu painting by William Henry Jackson. Courtesy of the National Park Service: SCBL 151.

Artist rendering of Narcissa Whitman. Digital item published on Wikimedia commons in 2016, in the public domain.

Portrait of Marcus Whitman by Asahel Curtis. Digital item published on Wikimedia commons in 2025, in the public domain.

"Descending the Blue Mountains to the Columbia," by William Henry Jackson. Courtesy of the Brigham Young University Harold B. Lee Library's L. Tom Perry Special Collections: MSS 1608, Item 729.

Artist rendering of Marcus Whitman administering medicine to sick Weyilletpu man on a tule mat. Courtesy of the Tamástslikt Cultural Institute.

Map of Oregon and Upper California, 1847. Created by S. Augustus Mitchell. Courtesy of the Historic Maps Collection, Washington State University Libraries' Manuscripts, Archives, and Special Collections: WWSU093; SC 1 2.1 1847.

Artist rendering of the Umatilla Indian Agency by Meghan Caves. Based on photographs taken by Lee Moorhouse found in the University of Oregon's Digital Collections: Lee Moorhouse Photographs: PH036_6030 & PH036_2674.

Image Sources Continued:

Map of Washington and Oregon Territories, 1853. Created by J. H. Colton & Co. Courtesy of University of Washington Libraries, Special Collections: G4240 1853.J1.

May 1855. Walla Walla Council. Governor Stevens with Indians. painting on clay coated paper by Gustav Sohon. Courtesy of the Washington State Historical Society: 1918.114.9.39.

Ledger art depicting a conflict between the U.S. Army and Plateau Indians. Courtesy of the Tamástslikt Cultural Institute.

Artist rendering of Fort Henrietta by Meghan Caves. Includes a photograph of Apple River Fort replica, Elizabeth, Illinois, USA published on Wikimedia Commons under a Creative Commons Attribution-Share Alike 3.0 Unported license.

Photograph of the U.S. Capitol. East Front, Washington, D.C. by Casimir Bohn ca. 1869. Digital item published on Wikimedia Commons in 2009, in the public domain.

Published version of the ratified "Treaty Between the United States and the Walla Walla, Cayuse, And Umatilla Tribes and Bands of Indians in Washington and Oregon Territories." Courtesy of the Newberry Library, Chicago, IL.

Historical photograph of Farmstead near Echo, Oregon. Courtesy of the City of Echo.

Original plat of Echo City, surveyed Wednesday July 28th, 1880, for W. D. Brassfield & J. H. Koontz; T. L. Moorhouse, surveyor. Filed and recorded July 30th, 1880, J. B. Keeney, Courtesy of The City of Echo.

"Whistling for Thorn Hollow – Umatilla Reservation" Photograph by Lee Moorhouse circa 1900/1910. Courtesy of the University of Oregon Special Collections and University Archives: Lee Moorhouse Photographs: PH036_5725.

Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company logo, color. Courtesy of the National Association of Timetable Collectors.

Newspaper article, "Echo Now A City: Final Action Taken by the County Court." Published January 8, 1904, evening edition of the Eastern Oregonian p. 8.

Photograph of George Fletcher competing at the first Pendleton Round-Up, 1910. Photographer W.S. Bowman. Courtesy of the Oregon Historical Society Research Library: OHS 67878.

Constitution and Bylaws of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Reservation in Oregon. Approved December 7, 1949. Published by U.S. Government Printing Office in 1957. Courtesy of the Library of Congress: LoC ID 57060936.

Photograph of archaeologist circa 1987. Unknown photographer. Courtesy of The City of Echo.